Property Details

Nestled amid the serene beauty of Chimirol de Rivas in Costa Rica, this remarkable land parcel spans a generous 36 acres, beckoning with an array of possibilities. Its prime location is underscored by exceptional accessibility, boasting an extensive frontage along a well-maintained public road. This expansive canvas is suitable for a range of ventures, from commercial endeavors to realizing the vision of your dream residence. At an elevation of 3707 ft, this land offers a truly elevated living experience. It is here that you'll be treated to awe-inspiring, panoramic vistas of the Valle del General. The landscape is adorned with extensive trails that meander through a captivating tapestry of mature trees, lush tropical native plants, and even an enchanting primary forest. The cold, crisp climate adds to the allure, providing a refreshing retreat from the tropical lowlands. One of the standout features of this land is its border along the enchanting Chucuyo River, infusing the property with a soothing natural charm.
