Property Details

The property known as Pacific Breeze is located in Las Huacas Hill's top location: a cul-de-sac with a panoramic and dominant white-water view over Guiones Beach and the best sunset views year-round from the entire house. The lush and manicured gardens have access to a forest-bathing path that ends on a hiking creek with two waterfalls during the rainy season. This modern home has a triple-ceiling dramatic entrance with a descending broad wooden staircase and a breathtaking view framed by a Carolina Sardi wall sculpture, an Italian turret clock, and a giant breezeway. A separate double office space is located right at the entrance for privacy. All three main bedrooms are master suites with total view panoramic terraces, king beds with silky, cushiony 500 thread-count white cotton bed sheets that embrace you, and large in-suite design bathrooms with separate room for toilet and bidet, double-sink vanity, and ample space with Hansgrohe rain shower-head and oval bathtub.
