Property Details

Rancho Tranquilo is a peaceful and private retreat set in a lush natural environment, just a short 400-meter walk from Playa Izquierda, and within walking distance to Playa Cangrejal and Playa Sámara. Surrounded by abundant wildlife and birdlife, this property offers a rare sense of tranquility while remaining close to town. Built around 2008 on a 992 m2 lot using high-quality materials, the home features solid concrete walls and foundation, ensuring durability, structural integrity, and long-term value. Access to the property is easy and convenient via a paved road that leads through a lush green corridor, creating a welcoming and serene approach to the main entrance. The main house offers spacious rooms with ample storage and has been meticulously maintained over the years. It features two bedrooms and one bathroom, along with a large loft that can easily serve as additional living space, a home office, or an extra bedroom.
