Property Details

Villa Altamonte is a contemporary gem nestled in the lush hills of Uvita, less than three minutes from the coastal highway. This elegant residence offers an unparalleled experience where modern design, comfort, and the most spectacular views of the Southern Pacific come together in one place. From the moment you walk through the stunning custom teak front door, the scenery takes your breath away: a 180° panoramic view showcasing the iconic Whale's Tail beach, Caño Island, and the endless shades of the ocean. Every corner of the home is designed to celebrate the natural beauty of the surroundings, filling the spaces with natural light and refreshing tropical breezes. The interior features a refined open-concept layout, including a modern kitchen equipped with quartz countertops, stainless steel appliances, and custom cabinetry. The kitchen flows seamlessly into the spacious living room and terrace, where expansive glass panels frame a horizon that transforms with every sunset.
