Property Details

Located in the peaceful countryside of La Hermosa de General in Pérez Zeledón, this exceptional property offers a rare combination of privacy, natural beauty, and development potential on a truly impressive scale. The estate spans approximately 124,025 square meters, equivalent to about 12.4 hectares or roughly 30.6 acres, providing abundant space for residential living, agricultural projects, tourism ventures, or a family compound surrounded by nature. Set at an elevation of approximately 750 meters above sea level, the property enjoys a warm yet comfortable climate year-round. From various points across the land there are beautiful views of the surrounding mountains and lush countryside. The setting feels peaceful and secluded, while still offering convenient access to urban services. Downtown San Isidro de El General, the commercial and medical hub of southern Costa Rica, is only about 20 minutes away, while the beaches of Dominical on the Pacific coast can be reached in approximately one hour.
