Property Details

This unique property is a real dream for those looking for space, freedom and privacy. The natural lighting, the heights and space were considered to open space for the impressive views of the Central Valley and mountains. The lobby opens to an ample space followed by the living room of the house, connected to the impressive deck, the columns of the deck are complete pieces of almond wood with eight meters high each, representing the trees and nature surrounding the house. The fireplace is an architectural element that "floats" between the living and dining rooms. The dining room was built with the idea of feeling that goes into the garden. This area connects to the exterior terrace and the beautiful gourmet kitchen with family dining area. Additionally the first floor offers the 1/2 visitor's bathroom, the laundry room and the maid's bedroom.
