Property Details

Welcome to 644 hectares of serenity. Finca Las Pavas is abundant in 2 things: space and luxury. The main house on this hacienda is 500 square meters, and the guest house is 200 square meters. Between the two buildings, there are 8 bedrooms and 10 bathrooms. The pool was custom-made by Piscinas Aquarium. The house and guesthouse were designed by the prestigious Costa Rican architecture firm Zurcher. Along with designing luxury villas, they have designed a number of elite hotels across Central and South America, like the W Reserva Conchal and the Secrets Resort Papagayo. Finca Las Pavas was designed as a nod toward colonial homesteads with a modern twist. Elements of the natural environment like wood, brick, and stone have been incorporated as decorative elements to tie the residence to its beautiful surroundings. This property offers a lot of income potential as a cattle ranch. The previous owners had cattle, so the facilities are already in place to run cattle immediately.
